

Membership Benefits...that work

Chamber members represent virtually every kind of business. This diversity empowers the Chamber to speak as a united voice for the Havre business community. We also offer benefits that you can't find anywhere else.

Community Connections

The Chamber is active in the Havre community, and encourages and supports the volunteer activities of its members. Through our policies, activism, collaboration and education we are a voice for business. We act on your behalf to ensure the Havre area remains a great place to do business. The Chamber extends supports to area non-profits through donations to support worthy projects. The Chamber "bridging the community." The Chamber also values their many partnerships: MSU-Northern, Havre Public Schools, the City and the County, Bear Paw Development, Northern Montana Hospital and the many club and organizations to fulfill a quality of life Havre. These partnerships engage energy and talent for a better Havre.

Committee Connections

Chamber committees are an excellent way to become active in the Chamber and the Havre community. The chamber sponsors several committees that focus on many topics, ensuring that a wide variety of member and community needs and concerns are addressed. Chamber members are encouraged and welcomed to participate on a Chamber committee.

Development Connections

The Chamber is there to support members and prospective members and companies wanting to do business in Havre. The Chamber encourages the growth of existing businesses and new business development, whether a local investment in a new business or an outside business looking at Havre. The Chamber's business packet is full on information about Havre including the Chamber's Community Profile.

Information Resource

The Chamber is here to provide your business with the necessary information, whether it is local, regional state or national, to keep you aware of what is happening in business. You can access demographics, community non-profits, clubs and organizations, community events and more from our web site: www.havrechamber.com. The Chamber's Facebook page is also a great information resource for business and community.

Legislative Connections

The Chamber watches out for your business. The Chamber keeps members up-to-date on legislations at both the city and state level. During the legislative session, the Chamber partners with Havre Public Schools to provide a weekly meeting with legislators to talk about legislation that may affect their business. Whether it a business license fee, a vendor permit, parking issues, the Chamber is there to represent the business community and voice its concerns. The Chamber continually works with the city and county to promote Havre and the economic health of Havre.

Networking Connections

The Chamber is the place to rub elbows with the community members that are taking a stake hold in Havre. The Chamber presents a number of opportunities through events and projects to meet business neighbors from the Annual Meeting to educational workshops.
